

FORD CALLED TO D. C. IN ELECTION CONTEST CASE

Henry Ford, or his lawyers, and Truman H. Newberry, or his lawyers, are to appear Friday before the Senate Privileges and Elections Committee before which Ford has filed a contest of the election of Newberry to the Senate.

The committee yesterday adopted a resolution inviting the contestants to appear in person or through their legal representatives to answer certain questions of fact concerning which the committee is in doubt. These concern preservation of the ballots, extension of an injunction to prevent destruction of the ballots and kindred matters.

INDORSE WELFARE BILL.

The Baer bill for a department of education and human welfare was given backing at a meeting last night of the District branch of the department of education and human welfare campaign committee at the Y. M. C. A. The meeting endorsed the bill.

Girls! Try It! Have Thick, Wavy Beautiful Hair

Every particle of dandruff disappears and hair stops coming out.

Draw a moist cloth through hair and double its beauty at once.

Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a "Dandierine" hair cleanse. Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Dandierine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt, and excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair.

Besides beautifying the hair at once, Dandierine dissolves every particle of dandruff, cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair. But what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair and lots of it, surely invest a few cents in a bottle of Dandierine's hair cleanser at any drug store or toilet counter, and just try it.

Save your hair! Beautify it! You will say this was the best money you ever spent.

WALSH ALL 'FED UP' ON 'SUNNY FRANCE'

Go to France—if you want to appreciate the comforts of the good old U. S. A., says Bugler "Tommy" Walsh of Company F, Sixth division ammunition train, who expresses himself as being "fed up" with the rains and mud of "Sunny France."

Bugler Tommy, former assistant steward of the National Press Club, in a letter to his brother, John, who is the present steward, lets forth a copious "atmosphere" of fog, rain, mud and longing. Here is what he says:

"The fellow that called this country 'Sunny France' must have been a real estate agent trying to sell some lots. It has rained steadily, day in and day out, for the last two months, with the exception of three days, when the sun came out for a while. It gets pretty c-c-cold and everything is damp."

"I have been through the Argonne forest. The Belleau woods have been my domicile for a time and I spent a couple of weeks at Verdun. And, believe me, everything hasn't been a bed of roses, unless you kill the blossoms and leave the thorns."

"My meals on Thanksgiving Day consisted of corned beef three times, and, gee, how that stuff gets my goat. I don't know where the fellows that write those stories in magazines get their stuff."

"I want to tell you about armistice day over here. From all accounts they went crazy around your place. But here there wasn't a yell or a cheer or anything. And afterward the same old drilling and training. So everyone is anxious to get back home again. I hope we get off early."

That a man who has braved the dangers of the fiercest battle fighting in the air, and has been decorated for gallant services rendered the United States, and who has defeated a professional peace advocate for a seat in Congress should be an outspoken pacifist is hardly within the realm of possibility, yet Congressman Fiorello H. La Guardia, of New York, is that man.

Congressman La Guardia, or Major La Guardia, of the United States Aviation Service in France, who defeated Scott Nearing, for Congress from the Fourteenth New York district, put himself on record at the reception of the French club at the Beaux Arts Salon, 1413 H street, last Sunday, as saying:

No More War, He Says.

"I am a pacifist and am neither afraid nor ashamed to say so. I have gone through the war, and I have seen the miseries of war. We're through with war; we fought war with war, and the boys who are coming back from over there have an idea or two in their heads which they are going to give voice to when they return. There is going to be no more war. I never was anything but a pacifist, and am a pacifist today."

"Furthermore," said the aviator-Congressman, "I am heartily in favor of a league of nations. But whether this idea will prevail at the peace conference or not, a league of nations is forming in the minds of the people of France, with Great Britain, and Italy and Belgium, and all the other peoples and nations who have seen and experienced the horrors of war. Whether on paper, or otherwise there'll be a league of nations to prevent any more wars."

Headed Caproni Squadron. Major La Guardia was at the head of a squadron of Caproni airplanes, which made a trip from Milan to Rome in July last. He also attacked the proposal in the postoffice appropriation bill for expenditure of over $2,000,000 on airplane mail service. He was in favor of turning the air mail service over to the army.

REPUBLICANS TO OPPOSE WILLIAMS AS COMPTROLLER

Strong opposition to the reappointment of John Skelton Williams as comptroller of the currency suddenly has evinced itself in the Senate. It became known today that Administration leaders are expecting a bitter fight when Williams' name comes up for confirmation. His term expires February 2.

Republicans, looking to success in the next Presidential election, do not enjoy the prospect of a Democratic comptroller of the currency. This complication arises from the fact that the comptroller's term is for five years, and Williams, if reappointed, will hold over three years of the next administration.

There was much speculation as to Secretary Glass' attitude should the Williams fight come. Glass, it is said, comes from an opposite faction of Virginia Democrats.

Editorial

A college professor once told us that when the world becomes an Utopia it will be peopled by super-specialists.

That is, when you want a sermon you will go to certain men. They will be so well versed in the things necessary for such an occupation that they will grind out the sermon as easily as they draw their breath.

Or, if you want your automobile fixed, you'll take it to a man who KNOWS his business, so well he'll fix it RIGHT without loss of time or energy.

Perhaps the professor is right. The tendency is that way, but it appears to us that it will be an uninteresting sort of life.

We get an immense amount of joy out of this business because of its uncertainty. We'd hate to have it filled with men and women so proficient that it was impossible for them even to do any thing but the RIGHT THING.

As the drawing implies, this particular shoe is made for feet that have enlarged great toe joints, or a "combination foot"—one that has wide forepart, with small instep and heel—the kind of feet that are usually hard to fit with ordinary footwear.

These shoes are made of fine-grade black kidskin, with Goodyear welted and stitched soles and leather military heels.

Feet requiring AAA to D ball measure lengths from 2½ to 8, can easily be fitted here.

A foot specialist is in attendance to fit your feet properly. Come in tomorrow and have the pain in your feet relieved.

New Hats For Spring At $7.50

Women are already wearing these hats. Every hat you meet on the Avenue seems to bob you a smile and give you a knowing wink as if to say, "This thing about the first violet is all wrong. We are ahead of it every year by at least four months, and we don't mind saying that though the idea is comparatively young, there is more spring in the first straw hat that ventures forth than in half a dozen first violets."

And now we are prepared to show a most varied and attractive collection of them—all new and exactly what you have been wanting.

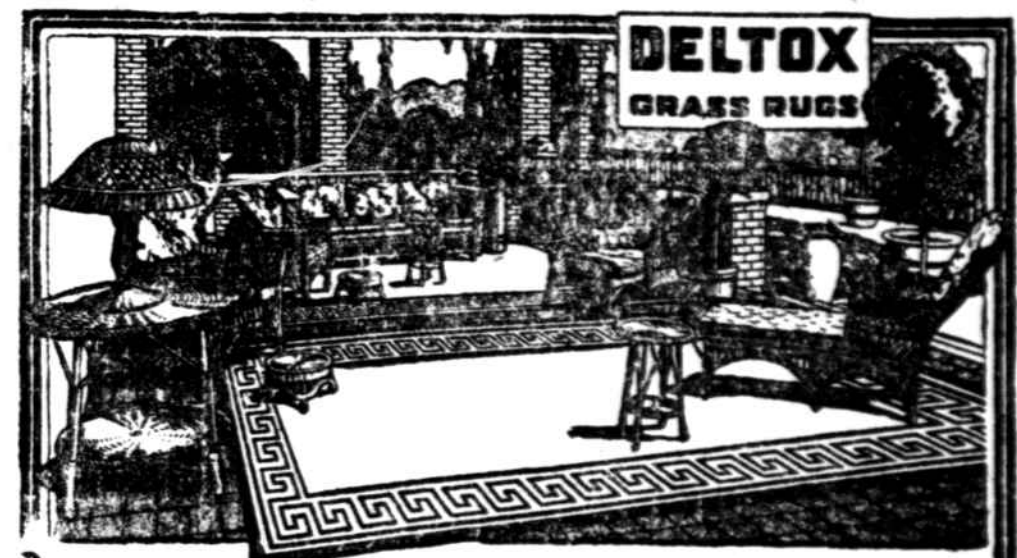

They are made of all-straw or straw in combination with georgette crepe. Trimmings consist of feathers, fancies, stick-ups, ribbons, etc. All shapes and sizes.
